I. WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY (WB Policy)

NEA-Alaska officials are obligated to comply with all relevant legal requirements in carrying out their NEA-Alaska responsibilities. A failure to meet this obligation—whether intentional or inadvertent—can have adverse consequences for the reputation and operation of NEA-Alaska. The purpose of this Whistleblower Policy (WB Policy) is to establish a procedure by means of which any such failures can be brought to the attention of NEA-Alaska, so that appropriate corrective action can be taken.

- a. A local shall meet the NEA Bylaw 8-7 "Standards for Local Affiliates."
- b. A local shall have officers who are minimally authorized:

2. Hearing Process

If a local does not meet these standards, then the local should be notified and a hearing should be held with state leadership. The hearing would determine the final status of the local's affiliation. If the local's affiliation is to be suspended or revoked, the individual public school employees shall still have the right to join as individual members and access the services provided to individuals. When a local's affiliation is suspended or revoked, NEA-Alaska should immediately notify the Alaska Labor Relations Agency to sever the relationship between NEA-Alaska and the unit.

II. PERSONNEL

A. POLICY PROHIBITING DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

NEA-Alaska is an equal opportunity employer and makes employment decisions on the basis of merit. NEA-Alaska prohibits discrimination based on race, color, religion, gender, marital status, changes in marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, pregnancy, parenthood, veteran status or any other consideration made unlawful by federal, state or local laws. NEA-Alaska's commitment to equal opportunity employment applies to all persons involved in the operations of NEA-Alaska and prohibits unlawful discrimination by any employee of NEA-Alaska, including supervisors and coworkers.

1. Accommodations

NEA-Alaska will make reasonable accommodations for the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or an employee. Any applicant or employee who requires an accommodation to perform the essential functions of the job must contact the Executive Director to request such an accommodation, specifying what accommodation is needed to perform the job. NEA-Alaska will then conduct an investigation to identify the barriers that make it difficult for the applicant or employee to have an equal opportunity to perform his or her job. NEA-Alaska will identify possible accommodations, if any, that will help eliminate the limitation.

2. Complaint Procedure

An employee who believes that he or she has been subjected to any form of unlawful discrimination related to NEA-Alaska must submit a written or verbal complaint to the employee's supervisor or to the Executive Director. If the Executive Director is the supervisor and is the subject of the complaint, the employee must submit the complaint to the President of NEA-Alaska. The complaint must be specific and should include details of the incident(s), the names of the individuals involved, and the name of any witness. NEA-Alaska will undertake an effective, thorough, and objective investigation and attempt to resolve the situation.

3. Remedial Action and Non-Retaliation

If NEA-Alaska determines that unlawful discrimination has occurred, it will take remedial action commensurate with the severity of the offense and will also take appropriate action to deter any future discrimination. NEA-Alaska will not retaliate against any employee for filing a complaint and will not knowingly permit retaliation by management, employees, or coworkers.

Unlawful Harassment

4. Non-discrimination

In addition to prohibiting other forms of unlawful discrimination, NEA-Alaska specifically prohibits sexual harassment and harassment because of race, color, religion, gender, marital status, changes in marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, pregnancy, parenthood, veteran status, and any other status protected by federal, state or local law. All such harassment is unlawful and will not be tolerated. NEA-Alaska is committed to taking all reasonable steps to prevent discrimination and harassment from occurring.

5. Sexual Harassment Defined

Federal law defines sexual harassment as unwanted sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or visual, verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- a. submission to such conduct is made a term or condition of employment;
- b. submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a basis for employment decisions affecting the individual; or
- c. such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an employee's work performance or creating and intimidating hostile or offensive working environment.

Sexual harassment includes many forms of offensive behavior. The following is a partial list:

- a. Offering employment benefits in exchange for sexual favors.
- b. Making or threatening reprisals after a negative response to sexual advances.
- c. Displaying sexually suggestive objects or pictures, cartoons or posters.
- d. Verbal conduct: making or using derogatory comments, epithets, slurs, sexually explicit jokes, lewd comments about an employee's body or dress.
- e. Verbal sexual advances or propositions.
- f. Verbal abuse of a sexual nature, graphic verbal commentary about an individual's body, sexually degrading words to describe an individual, suggestive or obscene letters, notes or invitations.
- g. Physical conduct: touching, assaulting, impeding or blocking movements.

It is unlawful for males to sexually harass females or other males, and for females to sexually harass males or other females. Sexual harassment on the job is unlawful and will not be tolerated whether it involves coworker harassment, harassment by a supervisor or manager, or harassment by persons doing business with or for NEA-Alaska.

6. Complaint Procedure

To protect its employees from unlawful harassment, NEA-Alaska must be able to rely on its employees to notify it of any perceived harassment. If NEA-Alaska doesn't know about the harassment, it cannot take the necessary measures to correct it. Employees should not assume that anyone in authority knows about a perceived harassment until they have informed the appropriate authority.

NEA-Alaska's complaint procedure provides for an immediate, thorough and objective investigation of any unlawful harassment claim, appropriate disciplinary action against one found to have engaged in prohibited harassment, and appropriate remedies for any victim of harassment.

An employee who believes he or she has been unlawfully harassed on the job, or who is aware of the harassment of another, must provide a written or verbal complaint to the employee's supervisor or to the Executive Director. If the Executive Director is the supervisor and is the subject of the complaint, the employee must submit the complaint to the President of NEA-Alaska. The complaint must be specific and should include details of the incident(s), the names of the individuals involved, and the name of any witness. All incidents of unlawful harassment that are reported will be investigated.

If NEA-Alaska determines that unlawful harassment has occurred, it will take remedial action commensurate with the circumstances, and will also take appropriate action to deter any future harassment.

7. Protection Against Retaliation

NEA-Alaska's policy and the law prohibit retaliation against any employee by another employee or by NEA-Alaska for using this complaint procedure or for filing, testifying, assisting or participating in any manner in any investigation, proceeding or hearing conducted by a federal or state enforcement agency. Additionally, NEA-Alaska will not knowingly permit any retaliation against any employee who complains of unlawful harassment or who participates in an investigation.

NEA-Alaska prohibits retaliation against any employee who opposes unlawful harassment. Any report of retaliation by the one accused of harassment, or by coworkers, supervisors, or managers, will be immediately, effectively and thoroughly investigated in accordance with NEA-Alaska's investigation procedure outlined above. Bear in mind, however, that the protection from retaliation is not protection from unrelated disciplinary action.

8. Liability for Unlawful Harassment

An employee who engages in unlawful harassment, including any manager who knows about harassment and takes no action to stop it, may be held personally liable for monetary damages. NEA-Alaska will not pay damages assessed personally against an employee under this circumstance.

C. HIRING PRACTICES

1. Affirmative Action Plan

- a. Introduction: An equal employment opportunity policy, under which employment is not denied on the basis of race or gender, will not by itself correct inequities; therefore, NEA-Alaska institutes this Affirmative Action Plan to provide increased employment opportunities and effective professional role models for ethnic minorities and women.

NEA-Alaska reaffirms its policy to provide equal employment opportunities without regard to race, color, gender, religion, age, disability, national origin, sexual orientation, or gender identity. This policy applies to all employee categories and to all phases of employment including, but not limited to, recruitment, placement, promotion, demotion, transfer, layoff, recall, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selection for training.

- b. Statement of General and Specific Objectives: The objective of NEA-Alaska's Affirmative Action Plan is to employ ethnic minorities and women in percentages at least equal to their representation in the Alaska population. The demographic numbers will be updated within the NEA-Alaska Member Engagement/Affirmative Action Plan each year.
- c. Recruitment: The Executive Director will develop means of recruiting minorities and women to fill vacant positions in categories in which under-utilization of ethnic minorities and women exists. Position announcements will be sent to known Alaska organizations which support people of color.

Job postings placed with employment agencies and other organizations indicate that NEA-Alaska is making an affirmative effort to employ ethnic minorities and women. Copies of the Affirmative Action Plan and related policies will be made available to employees, applicants and members upon request. Specific information will be published designating NEA-Alaska to be an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer.

- d. Selection Procedures: In order to ensure that requirements for all positions do not reflect any non-job related and potentially discriminatory factors but are truly job-related, the NEA-Alaska Human Civil Rights (HCR) Committee will review these requirements prior to recruitment to fill any positions any time a revised posting for a job is created.

Prior to the adoption of a change to a job description or the addition of a new job description, the NEA-Alaska HCR Committee shall review the proposed job description.

Tests purporting to measure intelligence or personality will not be used in the assessment of applicants. Tests designed to measure technical skills, such as typing and shorthand speeds, will be used when the skills which they measure are needed in a position. An equitable retesting policy will be maintained for applicants who do not initially meet the skills requirements.

Implementation of this Affirmative Action Plan requires that NEA-Alaska seek to know the race and gender of each applicant. A special section of the employment application will be used for this purpose with an explanation on the application of the purpose for which such information is elicited. The remainder of the employment application will require no information relative to race or gender.

- e. Promotion Opportunities: Career counseling and performance review programs are essential elements in enlarging promotional opportunities for employees. NEA-Alaska will develop such programs in order to identify and encourage the special capabilities and interests of its ethnic minority and female employees. Specific training through NEA-Alaska programs and outside programs, including tuition assistance (administered within the limitations of the budget and NSO Agreement) will be offered to ethnic minorities and women whose personal interests and performance records commend development in areas related to NEA-Alaska employment needs.

- f. Implementation and Responsibility: The NEA-Alaska HCR Committee is responsible for:
 - 1) Development of programs and dissemination of information relating to equal employment and affirmative action policies;
 - 2) Identification and resolution of discriminatory practices or any act of discrimination.
 - 3) Monitoring of selection practices of employees, in monitoring the selection practices of employees, the Executive Director will:
 - a) Review applicant data for purposes of comparing the percentage of ethnic minorities and women among the applicants actually hired;
 - b) Review all interview procedures to determine whether biases in the interviewers or interview techniques are adversely affecting ethnic minority and women applicants or employees; and
 - c) Review all recommendations for appointment, reclassification, promotions, transfers, dismissals, layoffs, recalls and performance reviews to ensure that no discriminatory actions take place.
 - 4) The NEA-Alaska HCR Committee with the assistance of the Executive Director shall review and update the Affirmative Action Plan on an annual basis. The plan will be submitted to the Board of Directors for approval and the approved plan will be shared with local presidents and the Delegate Assembly. A summary shall be included in the NEA-AKtivist.

- g. Hiring: The Executive Director shall be responsible for the hiring of all State Association staff members. During the hiring process, the Executive Director will have appropriate governance leaders included in the screening and interviewing of candidates. The results of the hiring process will be reported to the Board of Directors at the next NEA-Alaska Board of Directors meeting following the interview process.

Responsibility for successful implementation of NEA-Alaska's Affirmative Action policies must rest with the NEA-Alaska Board of Directors and ultimately with all NEA-Alaska members. NEA-Alaska management will make every reasonable effort to fulfill goals and timetables set for each employment group.

- h. NEA-Alaska and NSO-Alaska Bargaining Agreement: In implementing this Affirmative Action Plan, specifically in terms of seniority, layoffs, transfers, promotion, termination and grievances, NEA-Alaska will fulfill the obligations under the collective bargaining contract to which it is subject.

- a. Filing to run for office: A member becomes a declared candidate at the time of filing the letter of intent. No financial support may be accepted prior to September 1. However, this in no way limits any member from exploring the possibility of becoming a candidate. Only candidates who have submitted a letter of intent to run for office may actively campaign, hold campaign events, or distribute campaign materials at NEA-Alaska events. Due to NEA Election regulations, the September 1 limit is inapplicable to the NEA Director's campaign. Refer to Section 1. A.
- b. Association Resources: No NEA-Alaska or local dues money, equipment, materials, staff time, or other resources may be used to support any candidate or to distribute campaign materials for a candidate running for Association office.

 - 1) Declared candidates may be selected as trainers and/or participants in Association programs only when other persons or participants, qualified according to NEA participation guidelines, are unavailable. This limitation is not intended to restrict member access to Association training or events. Campaigning is forbidden while training or events are in session.
 - 2) Campaigning by NEA-Alaska elected or appointed officials when traveling at NEA-Alaska expense must be incidental to the assignment and must not interfere with the performance of duties. Candidates for statewide office who host campaign events in hotel rooms provided by an association (national, state or local) shall pay the pro-rated cost for the night of lodging during which the event occurred. The candidate's cost is computed as follows: divide the daily rate for the room by 24 and multiply by the number of hours the candidate's room was used for campaigning. If the room cost is zero, the rate generally charged to members shall be substituted to determine the pro-rated cost.
- e. Local Affiliate Endorsements: In its regular course of business, the membership or governing body of an affiliate may endorse a candidate for NEA-Alaska office. An affiliate may not call a meeting for the sole purpose of issuing an endorsement and may not spend any funds in any other manner for this purpose. A local may disclose endorsements in its regularly published communications to its members without violating b. or e. of this section.

- f. Local Affiliate Voter Education and Equal Access: On a neutral basis, a local affiliate may make available to all candidates for a particular office, resources in the form of interschool mailbags, presentation time at affiliate meetings, voter forums, and publications (newsletters, websites, and social media), either free of charge or at a rate charged to all candidates.
- g. Release Time Officer/Candidates: Release time officers are funded by dues dollars. A release time officer may not personally campaign for office or seek the support of others to campaign on the officer's behalf during the normal operating hours of the Association. An exception is available for local release time officers who take personal leave to campaign or (where a leave policy is not in place) who promptly report to their governing board, in writing, the dates and times of personal campaign activity occurring during operating hours.
- h. Staff: NEA-Alaska staff may not assist in any state or local campaign activity, distribute campaign materials for a candidate running for Association office, or assist with GOTV (Get out the vote) efforts, with the exception of pre-authorized assistance in managing electronic voting and/or distributing approved information about all candidates on a neutral basis.
- i. Campaigning at Association Events: No campaigning for statewide office may occur during Association (local, state, or national) events, with the exception of a candidate's acceptance speech following nomination. An announcement or invitation related to campaign events, needs or activities is considered to be campaigning. During recesses and before and after Association events, non-disruptive campaigning may occur, and campaign materials may be placed on tables and displayed in other designated locations.
- j. Delegate Assembly: At Delegate Assembly, each candidate for statewide office will be provided a table outside the main meeting room for campaign purposes. A candidate forum will be held for all candidates running for statewide office. The schedule for the forum will be designed to maximize audience and candidate participation. A neutral individual will be appointed by the President to facilitate the forum. The forum will be videotaped and the video will be published on the NEA-Alaska website (members only section) following DA.
- k. Direct Mail Candidate Communications with Members
 - 1) Upon a candidate's request, NEA-Alaska will authorize its current mail house to complete a one-time mailing to Association members on behalf of the candidate, at the candidate's cost.
 - 2) No candidate or campaign may distribute campaign material using member email addresses obtained through the candidate's service or position in local, regional or state office.
 - 3) NEA-Alaska will make one electronic mailing to Association members on behalf of all candidates, including campaign material submitted by candidates, subject to the Association's published formatting, length and time restrictions. The electronic mailing will include a link to the website of candidates for statewide office who provide a website link. Late or noncompliant submissions will be rejected, and NEA-Alaska will not be responsible for content. The electronic mailing may provide the contact and website information designated by the candidates.
- l. Disclosure of Source and Sponsor: All campaign material shall be accurate and clearly identify its source and sponsor. In the event that source and sponsor are the same, only sponsor need be noted.

- m. Get Out the Vote (GOTV) Drawings/Raffles: In verifying that the member is eligible to participate in the drawing or raffle, no GOTV drawing or raffle shall require disclosure of the member's vote.
 - 1) Local associations who conduct GOTV drawings or raffles shall advertise the activity on a standalone document with no reference to any candidate. The association shall clearly identify that it is the sponsor of the drawing or incentive.
 - 2) Candidates for statewide office may not conduct GOTV drawings/raffles.
- n. In Schools: Candidates may not campaign in schools during the student day.
- o. Local Officers as Candidates: During the campaign period, a candidate for statewide office who is also an officer of a local affiliate, shall be recused from the affiliate's discretionary election-related actions that are likely to create the appearance of a conflict of interest; such actions would devolve upon the next appropriate local officer. Discretionary actions include decisions about hosting or scheduling endorsement presentations, GOTV efforts, or voter education events, and election messaging through social media or the local's website or publications. Neutral, routine and customary actions of the local such as notifying local members that ballots are ready are not precluded by this provision. (Refer to section 3.e., above)
- p. Nonmember Participation in Campaigns: Association state and local elections are internal political procedures, limited to members. Members may provide campaign contributions to a candidate. A candidate may invite family members to attend campaign and/or voter education events, and may accept personal contributions from the non-member relatives. Candidates for NEA Director must comply with NEA campaign rules and federal law.
- q. Pre-distribution Review of Campaign Material: At a candidate's request, the Chair of the Elections Policy Violations Review Committee (EPVRC) will review campaign material submitted by the candidate prior to distribution. If the Chair provides a written approval of the material, the approval shall create a presumption that the material as submitted does not violate this Policy, in the event of a later complaint. Electronic proofs or descriptions may be submitted in lieu of the actual physical item or document. The Chair will be present and available at Delegate Assembly to review campaign material. The Chair may designate a member of the EPVRC to cover for the Chair at Delegate Assembly.
- r. Use of NEA-Alaska Logo or Name: The NEA-Alaska logo may not be used by candidates on campaign material. NEA-Alaska's name may not be used in a campaign to suggest endorsement by NEA-Alaska. Candidates may not use NEA-Alaska in their campaign's registered Website Domain names unless the domain name minimizes the possibility of confusion regarding the use of NEA-Alaska resources and endorsement by NEA-Alaska. An example of an acceptable domain name would be "Jones for NEA-AlaskaBoard.com." The use of the NEA logo or the symbol of the united education profession is prohibited by NEA campaign policies.
- s. Violations and Complaints Reporting: Any alleged violations of this policy shall be formally reported to the President in writing on the form provided on the NEA-Alaska website as soon as possible, not to exceed ten (10) days after the challenger knew or reasonably should have known of the alleged violation, or five (5) days after the polls have closed, whichever occurs sooner. The President will submit this violation to the Elections Policy Violations Review Committee as soon as possible and the committee will work to expedite their investigation. The NEA-Alaska Board of Directors will postpone certification of the election result for any race affected by an election complaint that has not been finally resolved by the Board. (Refer to section 5.c.) Any member eligible to vote in the affected race may file a complaint.

10. Elections Policy Violations Review Committee (EPVRC)

A member of the committee shall not be a candidate for any office or offer any support to a candidate running for election during their term. A quorum of two (2) EPVRC members is required for committee action.
- b. Candidate Notice and Witnesses: Candidates who have any complaint(s) filed against them shall be notified within three (3) calendar days of the date of filing. The candidate shall be given the chance to speak with the EPVRC about the complaint(s) before the committee renders a decision on its merits. The EPVRC may interview witnesses, complainant, and/or candidate(s) in any order deemed appropriate and to expedite determination.
- c. Exclusion Requests: A member who has filed a complaint and asserts that a member of the EPVRC cannot be impartial may submit a written exclusion request to the Chair. The request shall state the grounds for assuring bias. A timely exclusion request will be addressed by the EPVRC as a priority action. The Chair shall prepare a written response to the exclusion request and forward the response to the Board for decision. Pending Board action on the request, the EPVRC Chair may request participation of the alternate committee members, in addition to the regular committee, in order to avoid delay in committee action. The Board will determine appropriate action to take with regard to the exclusion request.
- d. Required Elements of Complaint: Review by EPVRC – Using the form provided on the NEA-Alaska website, a complaint concerning the election shall specify the policies or rules which have been violated, provide the dates and locations of the events that are being challenged. Identify names of individuals who have pertinent knowledge, and attach any evidence or documentation of the violation. The Chair of the EPVRC will notify the candidate who is the subject of the complaint that a complaint has been filed, and if the complaint states a prima facie violation of NEA-Alaska policy, shall schedule a time for the candidate to respond. In the event a prima facie violation is not found, the candidate and complainant will be notified of such determination. For violations of NEA Campaign and Elections Guidelines, the committee shall also notify NEA. The EPVRC will determine the facts relevant to election or campaign complaints by reviewing the type of evidence normally considered by prudent persons in deciding serious matters, including interviews or statements of witnesses who have firsthand knowledge of relevant facts. The EPVRC may grant the candidate an opportunity to provide factual information, and relevant mitigating - circumstances if applicable. The committee and chair shall keep confidential information about submitted items until the Board has decided the complaint.

- e. Referral by EPVRC: The committee may delegate all or part of the fact-finding to a neutral third party. Any delegation of fact-finding shall be accompanied by a specific assignment or set of questions for the reviewer, plus a deadline for completion of the review.
 - f. Recommendations by Committee to Board: The EPVRC shall submit a written summary of its findings to the President to provide the Board of Directors, and if the EPVRC finds merit to the complaint, the summary shall include one or more recommendations for action based on the seriousness of the infraction. The candidate who is the subject of the complaint will be given an opportunity to respond to the committee’s findings and recommendations at the Board meeting, in person, or by submitting a written statement. A copy of the committee’s summary may be provided to the candidate by the committee prior to the Board meeting only if the candidate agrees in writing to maintain the confidentiality of the EPVRC’s conclusions and recommendations until after the Board had decided the matter.
 - g. Board Determination: The Board of Directors shall determine the appropriate action on the complaint or complaints reviewed by the Committee. Any Board action in response to alleged campaign violations must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors. The Board may reject, modify, or accept the committee’s summary. The Board’s decision is the final decision of NEA-Alaska.
